

THANK YOU FOR YOUR INTEREST!

Before we get started, please take a few minutes to look over the following information. Below, I have included details about the schedule, pricing, and expectations. I also have included a few questions that I need to be answered regarding your area of choice.

We all have found a way to adapt during these Covid times. While day to day shutting down procedures still exist, it is more important than ever to keep creative passions growing. It is proven that the visual and performing arts have a positive impact on one's mental and physical well-being! Here are the options for you to continue your artistic growth in your own environment!!

Scheduling is first come first serve and flexible. Please have a couple of choices when you are considering what days and times work best for you. If you are ready to go ahead and schedule your first class or package, respond with the package you are choosing, the days and time that is best for you and please answer the following questions:

Which are you choosing for your coaching and what concentration-specific style?

What is your level of experience in the area you would like to focus on?

What do you want to get from our coaching session? (build confidence, perform professionally, etc.)

Please do not hesitate to contact me with any other questions. Thank you and I look forward to working with you!
